8 "from moscow's viewpoint," review of week's events:

moscow's press conference dealing with limiting nuclear weapons in europe attracted world opinion, including in afghanistan.

kabul new times expressed concern over u.s. stance in geneva talks.

this concern has further increased incident of spy plane in far east and washington's anti-soviet hysteria. babrak karmal said that the u.s. provocation is aimed at hindering the U.S.-SOVIET talks in geneva. Afghan press continue to carry reports on land and water reforms in the dra, as well as on the surrender of members of counterrevolutionary bands to the authorities.

Afghan press is also focusing attention on events in pakistan.

because not only is pakistan a neighboring country but it is a country whose territory is being used by u.s. imperialism as an arena of activity in the undeclared war against the dra.

currently anti-government is resorting to force and arrests in the face of people's demands. pakistan's collaboration in the undeclared war against the dra is the result of that country's dependence on united states, and in view of many people in Pakistan this is making more complex the problems which the country is facing. Pakistan's patriotic forces are demanding from that country's military regime to end participation in the undeclared war, to expel the Afghan counterrevolutionary bands and to hold direct talks with afghan officials for normalizing relations between the two neighboring countries.

Unfortunately, so far no indications have been observed on the military regime's acceptance of these and other demands by the people. therefore, the struggles in pakistan are continuing. (10 mins): dari 161500)
